WORLD CONFERENCE ON MOBILE LEARNING, OCTOBER 2007

TOURS

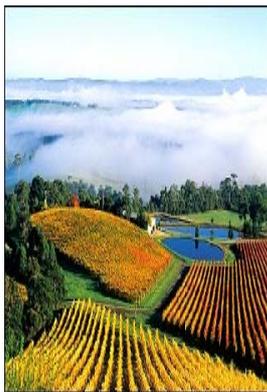

Tramcar Restaurant – Wednesday October 17th

Dining in Melbourne is a wonderful experience especially aboard the fleet of historic trams that have become The Colonial Tramcar Restaurant. These burgundy coloured restaurants on wheels are the first travelling tram restaurants in the world and ensure a delightful and innovative approach to dining. Cruising the streets of inner city Melbourne, fine cuisine and excellent Australian wines with full bar are featured amidst a cosy atmosphere where the service is friendly and the décor inviting.

Cost: $105 per person.
Includes: Tram travel, five course meal, drinks and gst.
Times: 8.20pm to 11.30pm.

Yarra Valley Wines – Saturday October 20th

This cool climate region that was first planted in 1838 is renowned for its sparkling and elegant table wines. Visits would be made to 3 wineries, the small family owned Kellybrook, the valley's first vineyard Yering Station and the French owned Domaine Chandon.

Cost: $110 per person, based on a minimum of 30 people.
Includes: Deluxe coach transport, wine tasting with cheese and biscuits at Kellybrook Winery, wine tasting & main course lunch with glass of wine at Yering Station Winery, guided tour, food platter & glass of wine at Domaine Chandon, guide, gst.
Times: 9.00am to 5.30pm.

Post-conference Tour – Great Ocean Road/Grampians/Ballarat

Saturday October 20th, 2007 (L)

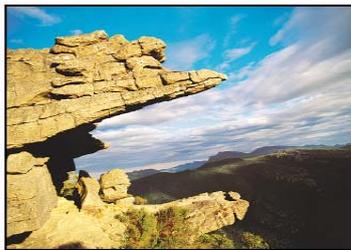

Depart Melbourne at 8am and travel to the west through Geelong, the state's second largest city. Not long past Geelong the ocean comes into view as we pass through Torquay and then onto Anglesea. Continue onto Lorne where the dual mix of the ocean and the Otway Ranges is breathtaking. Lunch would be taken at Lavers Hill and before the drive through to the rainforest at Melba Gully then to the Shipwreck Coast. The afternoon would feature the coastal rock formations of Loch Ard Gorge, 12 Apostles and The Arch before arriving in Port Campbell.

Sunday October 21st, 2007 (B, L)

After breakfast travel across to Tower Hill, an extinct volcano and now a State Park. A walk through the park reveals koalas in generous numbers in the gum trees. Late morning continue through to Dunkeld where lunch will be enjoyed at the stylish Royal Mail Hotel. After lunch, travel through the Grampians National Park into Halls Gap for the visit to the Brambuk Aboriginal Cultural Centre. Ownership of Brambuk is shared between five Aboriginal communities with historic links to the Grampians ranges and the surrounding plains. Spend time learning more about aspects of Koori culture, bush tucker as well as a nature walk. Late afternoon transfer through to Halls Gap, the major town at the heart of the breathtaking Grampians mountain range.

Monday October 22nd, 2007 (B, L, D)

Depart Halls Gap and travel through the Grampians taking in some of the most spectacular scenery the state has to offer. Included in these are The Balconies, Mt Difficult Lookout and The Jaws of Death before transferring through to Ballarat and Sovereign Hill. After the welcome some free time would be available to explore the park. Sovereign Hill is a recreation of Ballarat's first ten years following the discovery of gold there in 1851. Adjourn to the Charlie Napier Hotel for dinner before experiencing the sound and light show, 'Blood on the Southern Cross'. The show brilliantly recreates the events that lead to Australia's only civil war, the Eureka Stockade on Sunday December 3rd 1854. On the return to Melbourne divert to the airport for anyone with a late flight.

Cost: $770 pp, based on a minimum of 10 people (twin/double share).
$900 pp, based on a minimum of 10 people (single share).

Includes: Deluxe mini-bus transport, two nights accommodation, shearing demonstration and farm visit at Crombie Homestead, tour of Melba Gully, Port Campbell National Park, Tower Hill, Grampians and Sovereign Hill, entry fees to Sovereign Hill and Blood on the Southern Cross, meals as indicated, gst.
