The Grand Master's Hunt

You will be greeted and welcome by the Grand Master La Vallette who will be explaining some of the history pertaining to the Knights of St John.

The Grand Master will thus invite you to join him for a tour of the magnificent baroque city and to retrieve collectibles which have been lost along the years.

Actors in costumes belonging to the period of the Knights will accompany you throughout your walk, giving you information and details about the different locations. Among these escorts you will be able to experience, a pair of duelling knights, Caravaggio himself, and Marchesa Francesca Xara, a Maltese noble lady who will welcome you at her house and invite you for a tour around the house.
