Ice Mission

You have been recruited by the newest international agency to fight crime world wide - The International Counter Espionage (ICE Agency). A top secret microchip has gone missing and it must be recovered at all costs.

Encryptions, riddles, mental and physical activities all form part of this fun filled event. Hidden clues and mysterious notes will send our guests on a trail that will lead them to the prize, but who will get there first?... And will they get there in time?

You will be split into consisting 5 persons and will be using 4 x 4 jeeps to travel around the island, one camera per team, and a Mission Booklet

The missions include:

Abseiling – LAND – Mgarr Ix - Xini

Our agents must scale down cliff faces to obtain information hidden in the Maltese Valley and then scurry up a stepped up wall to get back to the starting location to download the info gathered and store pictures of hidden clues embedded in hidden crevices found in the valley.

Flying fox – LAND – Dwejra

With the co-ordinates in hand our agents must overcome their fear of heights. Agents must complete this breathtaking adventure to optimise their points and gather the all important information!

Driving obstacle Course

Our delegates will have to drive an obstacle course with their jeep using all their driving skills - reversing through barricades and over objects - however to limit their speed a bucket of water will be balanced on the bonnet of the jeep, the least amount of water spilt in the least time will be declared the winner.

The Bow and Arrow - Qbajjar

You must shoot straight and true - the more points obtained will be your only key to the missing information - only after you acquire the amounts of points required will your team be able to collect info and take the pictures required to complete the mission and move on.

Trolley

The team needs to cross to the other side of the quicksand that is not passable by foot. Using the materials provided in their emergency transporters kit the team members must build a device that will carry everyone across the dangerous area without touching the ground.
